Aldgate East Studio Apartments

Superb studio flats in this incredible East London development. This attractive apartment building boasts a manicured courtyard and roof terrace overlooking stunning city views, and most prominently the now iconic Gherkin (aka St Mary’s Axe). Residents are also invited to make use of the 24-hour concierge service. All of the apartments within this development have been finished to an exceptionally high standard and this versatile studio is no exception. Soft spot-lighting, creamy wooden floors and floor-to-ceiling window including Juliette balcony create a fresh and contemporary home-from-home. By day and night, the kinetic cityscape framed by the huge window will remind you that you’re in the greatest city on Earth. The elegant kitchen and bathroom suites add to the apartments’ luxurious appeal. The cool and complete open-plan living area comes furnished with table, a sofa and wall-mounted double bed. Nestled between the City and one of London’s quirkiest quarters, this lifestyle apartment is in the perfect location to get to more.
Whitechapel and Aldgate make up this culturally, historically and socially rich region. Previously Jack the Ripper’s main haunt, these days; dramatic encounters are limited to the independent cinema’s like Genesis where you can rent a sofa for a cozy night out.

Transport links in the area are exceptional, whether you’re hoping to zip across London or more internationally. Hop on the District, Hammersmith & City, Circle or Metropolitan lines from Aldgate and Aldgate East. A short walk towards the river to Tower Gateway; a DLR station delivering commuters into the heart of Canary Wharf and ...
