Sitting just off St Martin’s Lane, one of London’s most exclusive residential areas, this beguiling property is located in the heart of the city. These modern and understatedly designed apartments are set amidst the backdrop of characterful redbrick properties constructed in the Victorian era. Apartments are neutrally decorated and filled with natural light, offering lots of space to work or to entertain. Functional, fully equipped kitchens and stylish bathrooms make these apartments perfect for business travellers seeking a central London location to use as a base for traversing the city for business and pleasure. These studio apartments are furnished with solid wood flooring throughout, double height ceilings and original sash windows. Each apartment contains a home entertainment system, designer toiletries, a welcome pack and weekly complimentary housekeeping.
Area information

Leicester Square Station is conveniently located within a couple of minutes’ walk from the property. Leicester Square Station is served by the Northern and Piccadilly Line, ensuring that travel to business hubs is made as simple as possible for guests.

This apartment is in proximity to the idyllic and historic Covent Garden, the National Portrait Gallery, Somerset House and Trafalgar Square. A further walk will lead you to Queen Elizabeth II’s residence and jewel of London, Buckingham Palace.

Located immediately outside the property are some of the most exquisite dining experiences in...
