South Molton Street Apartments, Mayfair

Situated in the heart of the exclusive district of Mayfair, South Molton Street is a bold juxtaposition between modern developments and classical architecture. In between Oxford Street and Bond Street stations, South Molton Street is an ideal base for business travellers. Extensively reconstructed during the 20th century, many Georgian town houses remain intact. The interior of these apartments combine elements from the surrounding architecture. A bold contrast of the classical and modern, the living space is subtly decorated with stylish furniture, while light pours in through the large bay windows. The fully-equipped kitchen contains all the necessary utensils for self-contained living. The capacious bedroom offers ample storage space along with a comfortable King Size bed topped with exquisite linen. The understated bathroom contains both a shower and a bath. A weekly maid service is offered to all guests.
