Canary Gateway Apartments

The bright, modern Canary Gateway serviced apartments are ideal for corporate travellers. Situated just minutes away from Canary wharf, this apartment is perfect for a professional relocating to work in the city. A short 10 minute train ride sees you in the heart of London’s financial district, providing you easy access Bank & Liverpool street just to name a few easy to reach areas. The apartment not just boasts an unbeatable location, but also a beautiful, warming and calm interior, just what you need after a hard day’s work. The living area of these apartments is comfortable, stylish and functional. Large glass doors alight the room, allowing golden sunlight to filter through, enabling guests to enjoy the view from the comfort of one of the plush couches. A double bed layered with crisp white linen forms the focal point of both the spacious bedrooms, with soft cushions, plants, and artworks on the walls all adding character to what is sure to be a much-loved space. Equipped with brand new white goods, the kitchen is adjacent.

Area information

Situated in the district of Limehouse, immediately to the west of the thriving business area that is Canary Wharf, these serviced apartments are especially perfect for those in London for business. Guests can walk to the Canary Wharf area should they choose, though the apartments also boast excellent public transport connections. Canary Wharf is a unique part of London, being decidedly more modern than many of the older districts. This neighbourhood is dominated by grand, modern buildings, stretching high into the sky, shading the hurrying pedestrians and limited traffic. A number of exciting ...
