Queensgate Court serviced apartments, Kensington

Nestled among the charm of whitewashed Victorian townhouses, Queensgate Court is located in South Kensington, one of London’s most affluent areas. Defined by its exclusivity, Kensington, the playground of the rich and famous, is festooned with countless leafy squares, exquisite dining experiences and trendy bars. Each Queensgate Court apartment comes in Standard, Superior or Deluxe, offering studio, one, two and three bedrooms. Much like the area that surrounds the property, timeless design and luxury are the defining features of the apartments. All the apartment is specifically designed to provide comfortable, spacious living for the discerning business traveller. Equipped with all the necessary modern amenities—including Wi-Fi, satellite TV, fully-fitted Kitchen and 24-Hour monitored security— the apartments are ideal for business travellers. In addition, Maykenbel accommodation comes with a personal chef service and the option of a luxury car transfer service to transport guests around the capital.

The area is synonymous with interesting architecture and hidden pockets of interest, so it’s well worth strolling through the small streets that peel off the main road. Kensington is surrounded by countless sites to explore in greater depth. One of the most aesthetically pleasing buildings in London, the V&A Museum, is located within walking distance of the property, as is The National History Museum. West of Hyde Park and Buckingham Palace, Kensington is bordered by Notting Hill and Knightsbridge. Kensington and the surrounding areas contain some of London’s most exquisite restaurants, most ...
