The City of London is where you'll find both business and leisurely attractions that will keep any traveller like yourself occupied throughout their trip.

The Monument apartments couldn’t be more perfectly located; tucked between London Bridge, the Tower of London and the golden monument to the Great Fire of London that gives the elegant red brick building its name. Sometimes known as The City or the Square Mile, you’ll find traditional British pubs, lovely local wine bars and craft coffee shops on your doorstep. If you fancy venturing further, cross the river by one of the bridges, taking in the ...
